LUNT & ALLEN

WHIPPED BY THE HUSBAND.-In Salisbury, N. C., on Friday evening as a respectable lady was walking along the residence street of the city, she was accosted and is suited by a man by the name of Goldsborough, who represents a building and loan association of Washingten, D. The husband at once procured a whip and went for the culprit, but was prevented from at-tacking the man by the police and others. He was taken to a place of safety and arrangements made to get him out of town. A large crowd as-sembled and found out what was being done, and the escape was intercepted. The husband was then permitted by the crowd to soundly whip the man, and then they dispersed, since which time Goldsborough has gone to parts un-

INTELLIGENCE OF THE APE .- A naturalist recently declared that we are wrong in ascribing unusual intelligence to animals of the ape species. "As it is the only animal with hands, it dose many things by instinct and habit and necessity that resemble the acts of human beings and make it seem to us as the isguided by intellect. The ape is hardly more intelligent than the dog. if, indeed, he knows as much. He has a gift for imitation and a capacity for mischief, and that is the most human part of him. But the animal that really knows the most, or is capable of being trained so as to show the most striking results of education, is the domestic pig."
